Special CrimEx 4

11 October 2022
The Hague, The Netherlands

Venue:
Regulus Conference room
Eurojust

Objectives of the Special CrimEx 4

I. Cross-Mediterranean strategic documents

CrimEx will take stock of the progresses made and the next steps for the implementation of the 2022 – 2025 Strategy and Action Plans (attached to the agenda) on countering the trafficking in human beings and smuggling of migrants and the confiscation of crime proceeds and assets recovery within the Mediterranean region, adopted by the 3rd EuroMed PG Forum.

Prior to the meeting, EuroMed Justice Programme team will inform CrimEx on the activities developed to implement the Strategy and the Action Plans and the progresses made; EMJ may propose new outputs to be developed in the next year/s for continuing the implementation of the Strategy.

Based on the EMJ inputs Special CrimEx preceding the PG Forum (11 October) will fine tune and finalise the proposal for the consideration of PG Forum.

II. Statistical data

EuroMed Justice Team will inform CrimEx on statistical data on cross-Mediterranean judicial cooperation and facilitate the discussion on this topic during the meeting

III. Organisational issues

EMJ will consult CrimEx members on proposals for further organisational improvements and next 2023 Forum.
